

On a Night

Stephen Brooke ©2008

C Am Dm G

On a still and starry night was a baby born

C Am Dm G

and the shepherds sought his light, the light of a new morn.

F C Dm Em

On a starry night, and cold, they rose and left their sheep:

F C G C

Was it only to behold a little child asleep?

C Am Dm G

On a night when simple men knelt at a simple birth, was swept away all that had been; the breath of life filled earth.

C Am Dm G

F C Dm Em

On a night, a wondrous night, when the angels sang, the stars shone in their glory bright and the heavens rang!

F C G C